

THE SAGE HEN

A Quarterly Publication of the AAUW Nevada State Council

2020 - Volume 1 - August

AAUW has dedicated more than 120 years to the advancement of education. To this day, AAUW continues to break through barriers to improve educational opportunities for women and girls.

Mission Statement: To advance gender equity for women and girls through research, education, and advocacy.

President's Message:

Greetings AAUW Members in Nevada!

Your AAUW Nevada State Council met via Zoom on Thursday, July 23rd to discuss our plans and options for the coming year. The AAUW Nevada State Council is composed of Marian Stanton, Dorthiann Taylor, Jennifer Verive, Millie Szerman, Debbie Nicholas and myself who were elected by the Membership in May 2020 via Survey Monkey. Pamela Sheldon was elected by the Council on July 23rd to serve as Secretary, a required position per our bylaws. Janice Flanagan, Doris Dowden and Bonnie Barber have been appointed to the Council as well. AAUW Branch Presidents were also invited to participate.

YOUR AAUW Nevada State Council agreed that one of our major responsibilities to YOU, the member, is to ensure you are aware of what is happening in Nevada related to our mission and priority issues. We agreed that communication from AAUW Nevada will be shared via our SAGE HEN Newsletter as well as informational and/or action alert emails for state issues.

The SAGE HEN Newsletter will be published 4 times per year (August, October, January & March). Your personal copy will be emailed directly to YOU using the email you have provided AAUW as part of your membership.

In addition to our SAGE HEN newsletter, the branch leadership will receive emails from AAUW Nevada. These will provide updates on activities and events which could be of interest to your branch membership and may request individual or branch action..

Nevada is celebrating the 100th Anniversary of the Ratification of the 19th Amendment this year! YOU are encouraged to participate in as many Suffrage Anniversary & Celebration Events as possible during the month of August while abiding by the rules of social distancing and wearing of masks. One great way to participate is to get involved in the Social Media Campaign. You can encourage voting and registering to vote on your Facebook or Instagram account or Tweet out a message! Check out all the Suffrage Celebration Activities listed elsewhere in this newsletter.

Thank you for being a member of AAUW! Please feel free to contact me with any questions or suggestions.

Caroline J. Punches
President, AAUW Nevada

PUBLIC POLICY By Debbie Nicholas

This month, on August 26, 2020, we honor the Centennial of the ratification of the 19th amendment!

Three noteworthy Nevada suffragists include:

- Hellen Ann (McKenzie) Lovelock Bonnifield, Winnemucca: Organized the state's first suffrage convention. She was President of the Humboldt County Equal Suffrage League.
- Anne Martin, Reno: As President of Nevada Woman's Civic League, led successful state suffrage campaign in 1914. First chairman of NWP in 1916. Ran for US Senate 1918. Picketed White House in 1917, sentenced to 60 days in prison, pardoned after three days.
- Annie Martin, Reno: Legislative chairman for Congressional Union and NWP, member of NWP executive committee, vice chairman of NWP.

Take some time this month to celebrate how far we've come, and practice gratitude to all those who valiantly fought for our right to VOTE! You can continue to support their sacrifices by registering to vote if you have not done so, checking your voter registration status with your local registrars' website, voting in all elections, and supporting voting rights! Some General Information regarding National AAUW Public Policy Focus Areas: Based on the National Board's 2018 Strategic Plan for AAUW, national public policy priorities are focused first on our major areas of focus: education and training, economic security, and leadership. Additional policy priorities are also critical to ensure equity for all. AAUW supports a strong system of public education that promotes gender fairness, equity, diversity and inclusivity, and to address the barriers and implicit biases that hinder the advancement of women and girls. Some of the actions to support these goals include: the enforcement of Title IX and other civil rights laws pertaining to education, increased support & protection of programs meeting the needs of girls and women in all levels of education (especially STEM education), support and access to affordable higher education for women & disadvantaged populations, pay equity and fair compensation and benefits, strengthening retirement benefits and programs, access to a full range of health care services & patient rights, enforcement & full access to civil and constitutional rights, freedom from fear of violence, support of human rights, and ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment.

GOTV – Get Out the Vote Vote November 3

Preparing for the Election

AAUW believes in open and fair elections and nonpartisan voter education efforts that will promote equitable political participation and representation in elected office. AAUW materials can be used to educate your members and the community about the election issues. The 2020 Voter Issue Guide provides nonpartisan information about the policy concerns that are critical to women and their families. While AAUW is nonpartisan and does not endorse candidates, it is important to know where candidates stand before you cast your vote.

Heads UP for College Students---- Or if you have college students in your household/family:

President Caroline Punches

Caroline Punches joined the AAUW Capital (NV) Branch in 2013 and volunteered to fill the vacant position of Membership Chair almost immediately. Although new to AAUW in Nevada, Caroline was not new to AAUW. Having originally joined AAUW in San Jose, California in the 1960s as a young mother, she developed her organizational leadership skills while serving as Branch Membership Chair, President and other positions.

Caroline continued to develop her leadership skills over the next few years while employed by the American Heart Association, American Red Cross, San Jose State University Library and other nonprofit organizations. While originally trained as a teacher, her involvement with AAUW and other organizations has allowed her to share her organizational skills and to encourage women to pursue leadership positions. As an active Capital Branch member, Caroline especially enjoys Book Discussion, Capital Hikers, Gourmet and Great Decisions groups. Caroline has served as the AAUW Nevada Membership Chair and was a member of the AAUW Member Trainers. Caroline just completed her final year as Branch President and is looking forward to serving as President of the AAUW Nevada State Council.

Program VP Marian Stanton (Also President Las Vegas Branch)

Marian Stanton began working in sales as a youngster, selling cookies when she was a Brownie and Girl Scout. After attending several Junior Colleges, she received a B.A. from Cal State Fullerton while working as a Sales Representative for Carnation Company. When she moved to Colorado, she worked as a Truant Officer, returning to CSU to earn a Vocational Certificate and a Teaching Credential.

She developed a "Drop Out" Program at Boulder High School with 100% student work/study participation and was also a member of the State Committee for Drop Out Education. As a member of CASI, she participated in Colorado Business Week, designed for Colorado students throughout the state. She returned to CSU, receiving her Masters in Education degree and was accepted into the Doctoral Program. While working with Colorado Aero Tech as a Placement Director, the school closed and she became an entrepreneur in Advertising Specialties.

In 1987, she moved back to California and worked as a Loan Officer for World Savings, staying in that field for two decades. She joined ABWA and was involved with fundraising activities for scholarships when she discovered AAUW in 1997. Marian has held several offices and has been in charge of numerous fundraising activities for more than 30 years. She became President of AAUW Las Vegas in 2019.

Membership VP Dr. Jennifer Verive (Also Co-President Capital Branch)

With more than 25 years of experience in higher education, Dr. Jennifer Verive is an insightful educator who inspires students to think critically, manage stress and achieve their goals. A social entrepreneur and consultant, she has collaborated with academic institutions, non-profits, government agencies, small businesses, and Fortune 100 corporations on a variety of programs from performance management to onboarding to competency development.

AAUW NEVADA

Sage Hen

August, 2020

Dr. Jennifer Verive - continued from page 6

Jennifer is an active volunteer with AAUW Capital (NV), serving as Branch President and as an AAUW Work Smart facilitator. Previously, she was appointed as the AAUW Work Smart Coordinator for AAUW NV.

Finance VP Dorthiann Taylor

Born and raised in Reno, and education at UNR and UNLV, Dorthiann Taylor has had many occupations, including education, controller of a casino, owner of a hardwood flooring company, and many more. She has been an AAUW member for about 40 years, on and off. She has held the office of Treasurer for the Reno Branch (at least three terms) as well as Membership Chair twice. Currently, she is Treasurer for the Capital Branch as well as the Finance Officer for AAUW Nevada State. Dorthiann has a B.S. in Business as well as a Teaching Credential for business subjects. Dorthiann is a widow and lives next door to her daughter on a golf course in Carson City.

Secretary Pamela Sheldon

Pam Sheldon is a USF alumnus, graduating with a B.S. in Human Relations and Organizational Behavior. Her working career has been varied in such industries as the Post Office, bank, real estate, book distribution and a shelter for homeless pregnant women. Pam joined AAUW in 2016 so that she could participate in some of the outdoor activities that the Tahoe-Nevada Branch offers its members, specifically kayaking.

Pam has held the office of Membership Co-Chair for three years, and is currently the Branch Newsletter Editor. She also serves on the Fundraising Committee. Now retired, Pam lives in Incline Village with her husband, Jeff, and their two dogs. She has five children and several grandchildren, aged 5 to 17 years old.

Public Policy Debbie Nicholas

Originally from Virginia, Debbie moved to Incline Village full time in 2006, by way of the San Francisco Bay Area. After a career in Social Services and Appraisal, she retired from public service in 2011.

Since becoming a resident of Incline Village, she has volunteered for a number of non-profit organizations, including Project MANA, Tahoe Safe Alliance, Pet Network and the American Association of University Women. Debbie joined AAUW Tahoe-Nevada in Incline Village in 2006. She has served in several positions, including Newsletter, Treasurer, Fundraising and President.

Debbie holds a Bachelor of Social Work from James Madison University and a Master of Public Administration from California State University, Hayward. She enjoys travel, hiking and snowshoeing in our beautiful area.

Newsletter Editor Millie Szerman

After a successful 30+ year career as a Public Relations and Marketing professional in the gift, stationery, toys, and home decor industries, Millie Szerman retired in 2012, and was looking for something to utilize her talents and keep her occupied. By chance, she attended a general meeting of AAUW Tahoe-Nevada and the rest is history! She's an active participant on the Fundraising Committee, served as Directory Chair for several years, and just ended her term as President. Because she enjoys graphics (and continues to create materials for AAUW Tahoe-Nevada branch, she volunteered to take on the responsibilities of Newsletter Editor for AAUW Nevada State.

Millie has been working from home for nearly 4 decades, and in 2000, her book, "A View From The Tub: An Inspiring and Practical Guide to Working From Home" became one of Oprah Winfrey's Book Club picks!

Millie holds a B.S. in Psychology from Cal State Northridge, and a Public Relations Professional Designation Certification (equivalent to a Masters) from UCLA. She lives in Incline Village with her husband, Jim. Together, they have 5 children and 6 grandchildren.

Communications Doris Dowden

(Also President -Reno Branch)

Doris Dowden retired from a challenging and exciting 38-year career in software engineering and Information Technology (IT), creating an environment with technologies that have had a vast impact on people's lives.

She became a member of AAUW in 1994 and has been an active volunteer ever since. Doris has held various AAUW leadership positions (Treasurer, President, Membership VP, Program VP, Communications) in California (Antelope Valley) and Nevada (Reno and State organization). Currently, she's a member of three branches (Reno, Capital and California Online), and now serves as the Communications Officer for AAUW Nevada and for AAUW Reno (as well as their current President!) She is also a Board member of the AAUW partner, the Nevada Women's Lobby, serving as Treasurer and Event Coordinator since 2011. Both are wonderful opportunities to learn about Nevada women's issues and about other organizations that address those issues.

Advisor/ Past President Janice Flanagan

Janice met her husband in college many years ago, and raised their family in Cold Spring Harbor, New York. Through the vagaries of fate, they landed in Reno in 1979.

Her adventures with AAUW have included just about every position in the Reno Branch, including two terms as President. She's been privileged to be on the State Board several times and sits on the current State Council as the immediate Past President of AAUW-NV, where she lends continuity to their proceedings. AAUW is one of the passions of her life, since she feels putting energy, time, money and talent in service to increasing equity for women is a worthwhile endeavor. "Besides," she says, "it's fun being in a roomfull, or ZOOM-ful, of Type A women!"

Branch Presidents

Boulder City Branch Dr. Valerie Jean McNay

Valerie McNay learned about AAUW while working on her doctoral dissertation (to study women in educational administration) at and working fulltime for the University of Kansas (KU), off campus at University Affiliates Program (UAP) and Bureau of Child Research in Parsons, KS. She discovered that AAUW's scholarship programs were being offered to advance equity for women through research. She was impressed by the long history of AAUW's efforts to advocate for women in higher education and the funding AAUW provided to Maria Curie for her radiation research.

After relocating to Boulder City, NV in 1994, Valerie learned of the AAUW Branch in the community and has been a member ever since. She appreciates the historical significance of the Boulder City Branch because it is related to the construction of Hoover Dam. Reportedly, the engineers and other managers, hired to build the Dam in the 30's, came from the East and Midwest, bringing their educated spouses, who supposedly had been home economics majors. It was these women who joined together to form an AAUW branch in a rural community with no institution of high education in the area at the time.

Capital Branch Co-Presidents: Janice Noble, Ph.D. and Dr. Jennifer Verive (See Page 6)

Janice Noble has been a member of AAUW for nearly five years. While now retired, her most recent position was Vice President of Academic Services in a California

Community College. She earned her Ph.D. in Education with an emphasis in Higher Education Administration and also hold a Masters in Business Administration, as well as a Master of Arts in Education. Janice is also a licensed Registered Nurse and a Certified Personal Trainer.

She feels it is an honor to serve as Co-President of the Capital Branch in Carson City and has most recently been Co-Chair of Public Policy. She is also a WorkSmart facilitator. Consistently inspired by the work AAUW and her colleagues do as current issues affect women and girls, Janice is especially interested in public policies that improve the lives and livelihoods of women as we work to close the gender pay gap.

*Fallon Branch
Carol Roeder*

Carol Roeder first came to Fallon in 1977, not knowing anyone. Luckily, she met Genie Cunningham, who invited her to join AAUW. An active member until 1982, Carol moved back to California where she taught in a small two-room school until 1993.

Carol graduated from San Jose State in 1955 and taught Kindergarten and First Grade in San Jose for many years. In a new job, she taught grades 4 through 8; a wonderful experience, but lots of hard work.

She took over as President of the Fallon Branch for the first time in 1994, and has served as President, on and off, since then. She also serves as Treasurer of that branch. Presently, the Fallon branch has 20 members and its main goal is raising money for scholarships.

*Las Vegas Branch
Marian Stanton(See Page 6)Reno Branch
Doris Dowden(See Page 8)Tahoe-Nevada Branch
Janet Usinger*

Although Janet Usinger has only been a member of AAUW for a few years, her indirect involvement with the Tahoe-Nevada branch dates back to the 1970's when her mother, Emma Usinger was an early member.

Throughout her almost 40 years on the faculty of University of Nevada, Reno, Janet has devoted her career to the creation and support of learning opportunities for people who have been educationally underserved. She started her career in Cooperative Extension as a Nutrition Specialist, specifically helping young people develop and maintain eating patterns to support health and well-being. As an Administrator, she championed programming for youth at risk for failing and dropping out of school. Since joining the College of Education in 2000, she has engaged in teaching and research related to first generation college-going students.

Beginning her postsecondary education at the Universidad de las Americas in Cholula, Mexico, she received both her Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Nutrition from the University of Nevada, Reno in 1976 and 1978, respectively. After participating in a three-year leadership development program focused on the future of Cooperative Extension, Janet explored the changes needed for higher education to remain relevant in the 21st Century during her doctoral program at Walden University, completing her Ph.D. in 1995. Janet has lived in Incline Village since 1985 and enjoys hiking and kayaking in Summer and Fall; winter months are greatly anticipated for the opportunity to ski and snowshoe. Reading, sewing, and travel are passions, as well. Twice a widow, she has five step-children.
